

Unique domain name auction: 43.com, 866.com, Hotel.nl, consulting.co.uk and more up for bids at Undeveloped.com

AMSTERDAM - 23/03/2016 -- The domain name marketplace Undeveloped today announces to host a unique domain name auction in cooperation with the Domaining Europe conference, which will start 24th of May and last until 31th of May.

“We’re auctioning 150 domains including the 5 most premium domains in the following extensions .com, .de, .uk, .nl, .es and the .it extension that were never before offered to the public. We’re really looking to auction of the crème de la crème domains out there.” said Reza Sardeha, Undeveloped's founder and CEO.

Chinese end-users and domain investors will be very happy to learn that the domains 43.com & 866.com will be exclusively available at the auction. For the Dutch market Hotel.nl & Geschenken.nl (Gifts) will give end-users a unique opportunity to own these premium domains and develop them.

“We’re very excited to partner up with Undeveloped to host the biggest European domain auction at the biggest European domain conference. At the official end of the conference we’ll open up the venue for end-users to drop by and bid live on domains. We’re expecting a great outcome from both local and international buyers.” said Dietmar Stefitz the founder of Domaining.es.

In the next three weeks Undeveloped will accept new submissions for the auction. Anyone can submit their premium domains here: Undeveloped.com/auction

About Undeveloped: Undeveloped is a unique domain name marketplace where domain buyers and sellers connect to each other. Today Undeveloped provides access to millions of domains allowing anyone to find and secure the name for their next project or business.

About Domaining Europe: DomainingEurope is an event, where many Top Level Decision makers from the global Domain Industry meet, make Business and share new tendencies, tools and knowledge. It enables the communication between Registrars, Registries and most important Registrants. The shape of the domain name market is changing on a global scale with new top-level domains launching every week. How does this affect the local Domain market and specially the ccTLD’s and GEO-Domains.
